

Minneapolis St. Paul Business Journal Names Michael Ovshak as One of Area's Top Independent Wealth Advisers

Minneapolis, Minn. — July 20, 2007 — Michael Ovshak, CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ practitioner with FPS Financial Inc., has been named as one of Minnesota's Top Independent Wealth Advisers in its July issue.

When asked what the most important service was that he provided to clients, Mike replied “Our ability to develop personalized solutions for complex situations. We provide professional service with a personal touch. Our knowledge and experience helps to instill confidence, while dealing with our client's wealth management plans.”

Ovshak is a graduate from the University of Minnesota. He joined FPS Financial in 1990. In 1993, he became a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ practitioner. Ovshak is also an Investment Adviser Representative of Commonwealth Financial Network, Member FINRA/SIPC.

Research for this list was done by The Winner's Circle, a Florida-based organization that advocates for best practices in the wealth management industry. While the Winner's Circle has been ranking advisers since 2001, this is the first year it has ranked independent advisers.

FPS Financial, Inc. (www.fpsfinancial.net) is headquartered in New Brighton, MN. The firm understands the importance of building each client relationship based on trust, communication, and experience. Throughout the years, it has evolved with the ever-changing financial world and tailored its practice to be a client service-based environment where everyone works as a team toward each client's unique goals and objectives.
